

FEARS ECONOMIC WEAPONS DANGER

British Press Divided on Lloyd George's Threat Against Germany

QUOTE WILSON'S VIEWS

Impossible to Carry Out Both American and Premier's Policies

By the Associated Press London, Aug. 2. Sharp dissent to the threat of Premier David Lloyd George to use the economic National Union of Manufacturers weapon against Germany after the war, Premier before a delegation from the as outlined in an address made by the today, is expressed by the Liberal press and the premier's view, it is said, will not be followed in America.

Quoting the phrase "the longer the war lasts the sterner must be the economic terms we impose on the foe," used by Mr. Lloyd George, the Chronicle says: "We doubt very much whether that is how President Wilson views the question. It is certain that the view of American opinion generally, Americans attach great importance to the economic weapon which the Allies, acting together, could wield, but the Americans do not wish it wielded with a vindictive purpose for any fixed period after the war; it will not be possible to carry out both the American policy and Lloyd George's policy. They are alternative, not supplementary."

"The American suggestion is full of hope and help in the pursuit of ultimate permanent world peace. That of Lloyd George has quite the opposite tendency." The Daily News says: "It is idle for Lloyd George or any other statesman to maintain that the spirit underlying a league of nations is reconcilable with the spirit underlying and inspiring the protective tariff."

"We must choose one or the other. It is a question of the policy of Wilson or the policy of the Paris resolutions. If American views on the Paris resolutions have been expressed in official documents, they have been expressed repeatedly and unequivocally in President Wilson's speeches, which have preached a gospel utterly incompatible with the perpetuation of hostility through an economic war."

Conservative papers, on the other hand, generally endorse the Premier's address, although some accuse him of being indefinite. The Times, recognizing the existence of the opinion in some quarters that the United States will not consent to the employment of economic weapons against Germany, emphasizes the fact that the Premier expressed the hope that an agreement might be reached on economic as well as other problems between America and England.

It cites the phrase used by President Wilson in his Mount Vernon address, "No half-way decision is tolerable," and says: "Germany is hardly likely to believe that the Allies mean what President Wilson thus said for them as long as they fail to take what Lord Robert Cecil, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, described the other day as 'all steps required to destroy the economic basis of Germany's military effort.'"

SUFFRAGE IS WORLD ISSUE, WILSON SAYS

President Urges Senator Baird's Support as Aid to Fight for Democracy

Washington, Aug. 2.—(By I. N. S.). President Wilson today continued his drive to round up support of the Susan B. Anthony equal suffrage amendment in the Senate. In a letter to Senator David Baird, of New Jersey, the President urged that the junior Senator from his own State support the measure. "The President in his letter expresses the belief that 'our present position as champions of democracy throughout the world' would be greatly strengthened if the Senate would follow the example of the House of Representatives in passing the amendment."

The letter follows: "My Dear Senator Baird: 'The whole subject of woman suffrage has been very much in my mind of late and has come to seem to be a part of the international situation, as well as of capital importance to the United States. I believe our present position as champions of democracy throughout the world would be greatly strengthened if the Senate would follow the example of the House of Representatives in passing the pending amendment. I therefore take the liberty of writing to call your attention to your serious attention in this light and to express the hope that you will deem it wise and throw your influence on the side of this great and now critical reform. Sincerely yours, 'WOODROW WILSON.'"

PENNSYLVANIA'S "FIGHTING 10TH" PRODUCES HEROES IN FRANCE

Majors Anderson and Thompson, With Others Mentioned in Cable Dispatches, Are Members of Regiment Which Won Honors in Philippines

Highest military traditions of the Keystone State are excited by Raymond Carroll's cables to the Public Ledger, published this morning, vividly describing how members of the old "Fighting Tenth" Regiment won deathless fame by heroic conduct in their forward dash over a half-mile front east of Sergey Tuesday afternoon, when they bucked the Allied line another half-mile northward.

Major Anderson commanded the Third battalion in the thick of the Sergey advance. Lieutenant Marshall Barron is officially credited with the capture of sixty-seven Germans, whom he delivered single-handed to the rear lines.

Corporal Alfred Davis shot and killed eighteen Germans after he had seen his lieutenant killed by a sniper. Major Joseph H. Thompson gave the order that sent his machine gunners swarming up the Sergey slopes.

Greensburg, Pa., Aug. 2.—Major Thomas Anderson, Lieutenant Marshall Barron and Corporal Alfred Davis, all of Latrobe, whose heroism is recounted in dispatches from France, are all members of the 110th Regiment, Twenty-eighth Division, which has been fighting along the Marne front during the last ten days.

The 110th is the old "Fighting Tenth" of Spanish-American War fame, which held a leading part in National Guard affairs in Pennsylvania for many years. It was in the Philippines the Tenth took part in twelve pitched battles. In 1915 it was on duty in the Big Bend district on the Texas border.

Major Anderson formerly was captain of Company M, of Latrobe, and Lieutenant Barron and Corporal Davis are both members of that company.

Uniontown, Pa., Aug. 2.—Lieutenant John L. Robinson is mentioned in a cablegram for heroism in carrying dispatches as a liaison officer. He is the son of Attorney and Mrs. H. Robinson of Uniontown, and is one of five brothers in the military service of the country, four of whom are officers. Lieutenant Robinson was active in the Pennsylvania National Guard for a number of years and was appointed in June, 1917. He was on the Mexican border last year. He was graduated from Geneva College, University of Pittsburgh football team in 1909, 1910 and 1911, and became a member of the Fayette County bar and enjoyed a large practice when he

PLAN FIGHT IN COURT TO BUY LIBERTY BONDS

Building and Loan Associations Oppose Attorney General Brown's Ruling

Two thousand building and loan associations throughout the State will fight in court for the patriotic privilege of purchasing Liberty Bonds, the result of a ruling by Francis B. Brown, State Attorney General, to the effect that the associations cannot invest their funds in this manner.

Claude A. Simler, chairman of the building and loan association Liberty Loan committee, served notice of the proposed action in a letter today to Daniel P. Lefean, State Commissioner of Banking.

The ruling of Attorney General Brown was made to Commissioner Lefean yesterday. It was to the effect that building and loan associations are co-operative concerns and the stockholders not permanent investors and, therefore, cannot make permanent investments, and can make loans only to stockholders. The stockholders are entitled to all profits, and for that reason there cannot be any surplus, the Attorney General holds.

Michael J. Brown, secretary of the City of Homes Building and Loan Association, declared Attorney General Brown's ruling would not cause the building and loan associations any worry.

"In the first place, the Liberty Loan is not a permanent investment, but only temporary," said Mr. Brown. "In the second place, the State law under our patriotic procedure of buying bonds regards the surplus, building and loan associations are allowed to borrow 25 per cent of the withdrawal value of their shares. When they borrow money that amount is a surplus, and they can invest it in the Liberty Loan, according to the State law."

One suggestion which should appeal especially to the mothers of young children is for an exhibit of the materials used in the home play of the younger children. This might include a sand box, home-made playground apparatus, such as swings, teeter board, roller ball, slides and the like, together with home-made toys and other devices for the entertainment of young children, which would be suggestive and helpful to other mothers. The interest and help of mothers and fathers are indispensable to the success of all such undertakings, and should be freely given.

PLAY WEEK TO TEACH CHILDREN PATRIOTISM

Plans Being Made by United States Department of Labor

A fine collection of something may be able to enter it for exhibit and all should have part in the games and play of the celebration.

Tired mothers sometimes feel that it is beyond their power to get their children ready for these outside things, but if the patriotic play week is held as part of the county fair or other neighborhood gathering, the whole family will be able to have a part in its pleasures and benefits. From now on, there will be none too much time for making ready for a play week, and mothers are urged to give such help as they can in this community movement, both through the own children and by assisting with the community arrangements for the play week.

One suggestion which should appeal especially to the mothers of young children is for an exhibit of the materials used in the home play of the younger children. RISKS LIFE TO SAVE SISTER

Two Altoona Girls Rescued From Surf After Struggle

Atlantic City, Aug. 2.—Bravely risking her own life to save that of her sister, Miss Bertha Morgan, of Altoona, narrowly missed being badly injured in a jolly near Kentsbury avenue yesterday. She was saved by Guards Damien, Estegren and Craig, after a perilous battle in a heavy surf.

The girls had been on the surf about fifteen minutes, when an onrush suddenly developed, and Miss Helen Morgan was whirled out into the heaviest part of the breakers. The heavy waves smothered her in an instant. Her sister, the better swimmer, shouldered to the girls and plunged into the thick of the surf. She fought to free a sister and managed to keep her above water until Damien and Craig, in a boat, and Damien, with a can buoy, got close. Then she shot her grip on the buoy and caught Helen as she swept by.

The sweep of the tide and backwash were carrying Bertha toward Illinois avenue and the jetty. All three guards kept fighting through the seas and reached Miss Morgan when it appeared certain that she would be hurled against the jetty.

PLAY WEEK TO TEACH CHILDREN PATRIOTISM

Plans Being Made by United States Department of Labor

Mothers will all be interested in the plans for Patriotic Play Week which have just been announced by the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor at Washington and the Child Welfare Department of the Woman's Committee as one of the features of Children's Year.

It is proposed that a week or part of a week, as may be most convenient in different communities, be set aside as a time when all the children and young people shall have a chance to test their strength and muscular agility by competing in athletic contests of various kinds. The plan is to provide play leadership locally throughout the summer in games that promote physical efficiency. In the Patriotic Play Week the children will be given a chance to show the results of their summer's play and other activities.

Play week is intended to include all the occupations of children's summer-time—such work as is done by the boys' and girls' clubs—the canning, pig and poultry raising clubs of the Department of Agriculture, which are organized in every State. Boy Scouts can give their drills and demonstrations of their special activities. There may be exhibits of work done for the Junior Red Cross or for other patriotic purposes, and such things as bird houses, garden furniture and kites, which the children have made, may be displayed.

At the same time that the exhibit is going on, it is hoped that the children and young people will be given a chance to work done for the Junior Red Cross or for other patriotic purposes, and such things as bird houses, garden furniture and kites, which the children have made, may be displayed.
